PRESS NOTE

Vipassana meditation is a gift of India to the world. Drugs addict can be reformed through de-addiction counseling and psychotherapy, meditation : CP Mahesh Bhagwat IPS

On Monday, in view of the International day against drug abuse, a Legal awareness program on Drug Abuse has been organised by Dharm seva a voluntary organisation in association with Telangana state legal services authority and district legal services authority, Rangareddy district at ACE Engineering College, Ghatkesar. Rachakonda CP Shri Mahesh Bhagwat IPS has graced the event with his valuable views about drugs de-addiction of youth through counseling, meditation etc.

Addressing the gathering, CP has stated that Vipassana is a gift of India to the world and mentioned how America is making their school children practice Vipassana and utilizing Vipassana to bring change in the hardcore prisoners. CP commended Dharma Seva organisation for bringing DHEERA app which helps everyone to come out from drug abuse.

During his speech CP has reminded that he was graduated from College of Engineering, Pune and specially mentioned that renowned scientist and Bharat Ratna awardee Shri Mokshagundam Visvesvaraiah also studied in the same college.

CP reminded that he worked as a trainee officer in Manipur and mentioned his efforts in controlling the illegal transportation of drugs on national highway number 39.

CP has emphasized the need for more awareness programs against drug abuse and usage of other drugs which are prohibited. CP advised the youth to stay away from drugs and stated that doing drugs would spoil their valuable health and future in many ways. CP advised the youth to practice Vipassana meditation to acquire strength to fight drug abuse and achieve their goals in the life. Drug consumers if arrested in cases can get prosecution immunity under section 64 a of NDPS Act wherein they have to go for deaddiction counseling multiple times and blood test at end of that with professional counselor. Under Naya Savera with help of Dr Devika of Amrita foundation Rachakonda police giving de-addiction counseling to those who want to get rid of drug abuse.

SLSA Member secretary Sri Goverdhan Reddy has narrated role of legal services in getting consumers out of drug menance. He has also released a short film on awareness about drug abuse and role of legal services. DLSA Rangareddy Chairman Sridevi Madam was president of the program.

Excise superintendent Anji Reddy has created awareness on side effects of Marijuana and other drugs and how students should focus on studies and not to get into peer pressure through entry drugsand spoil their career.

Dr Prasad, Hope trust, Sri J Nishanth Reddy, Dharma seva trust, ACE college chairman Sri Y V Gopala Krishna, Principal B.L. Raju were also participated in an awareness program.

